Announcement on Revisions to Dividend Forecasts (Dividend Increase)

The Company announces that it has resolved to revise the dividend forecasts for the fiscal year ending August 2026 as follows at the meeting of the board of directors as of the date hereof.

Particulars

1. Reasons for revisions to the dividend forecasts

The Company considers the return of profits to shareholders as one of the most important business challenges and has the basic policy of paying stable and continuous dividends with comprehensive consideration for the business environment, status of capital needs, and future business expansion.

Under that policy, the Company decided to increase the dividend per share by JPY 30.00 to JPY 35.00 as a result of comprehensive consideration of the latest performance and financial position and future business expansion.

The payment of the dividend is subject to approval of the agenda on dividends from a surplus at the fifty third general meeting of shareholders in November 2026.
